

2019 INTERFAITH PEACE WALK

Join the Pacific Northwest Interfaith Walk for Global Nuclear Disarmament as it comes through Corvallis.

The walk will begin at 8 a.m. at the OSU Asian & Pacific Cultural Center. Contact local organizers for the full itinerary*

Wear comfortable and weather-friendly attire! Bring water, sunscreen, and sack lunch.

This will be the 15th Peace Walk in the North West. The steps taken are small, just like a ripple in a pond. Yet, it is certainly a way to teach the promise of peace on this earth. This annual Peace Walk is led by the Nipponzan Myoji Buddhist Order.

Additionally, a public discussion on nuclear weapons from various perspectives will be held at the Corvallis- Benton County Public Library (645 NW Monroe Ave, Corvallis, OR) at 2 p.m.

* For the itinerary and questions regarding this event, contact: linda.richards@oregonstate.edu

**Due to allergies, please do not bring animals to this event. We appreciate your consideration!

SUNDAY

JULY 28, 8 a.m.

OSU, Asian & Pacific Cultural Center
2695 SW Jefferson Way, Corvallis, OR

Oregon State University

2019 INTERFAITH PEACE WALK & PUBLIC DISCUSSION

Please join our intergenerational public discussion on nuclear weapons from various perspectives.

Learn about Senate Joint Memorial 5 and how it granted Oregonians the human right to live free of nuclear weapons threats and contamination.

* For the itinerary and questions regarding this event, contact: linda.richards@oregonstate.edu
**Due to allergies, please do not bring animals to this event. We appreciate your consideration!

Want to learn more about the NW Interfaith Walk for Global Nuclear Disarmament? Contact Rev. Senji Kanaeda, kanaedasenji@gmail.com

SUNDAY

JULY 28, 2 p.m.

Corvallis- Benton County Public Library
645 NW Monroe Ave, Corvallis, OR

Oregon State University